(1888PressRelease) May 17, 2008 - Fort Lauderdale, Florida - The shelter and camp leasing strategies enhance our unique financing programs currently available to our clients regarding vehicles and equipment, states Tracy A. Badcock, Vice President of Marketing and Communications for the Overseas Lease Group, Inc. Badcock explains, "Now, vehicles, equipment and complete camps can be included in one lease structure. With an OLG lease, a client may have several multi product projects in various locations under one master lease."

Badcock continues, "We are dedicated to assisting NGO efforts, Government Agencies and companies operating in developing countries as much as we can by offering these services. We value the individual needs of each client and each project. In support of this commitment, the Overseas Lease Group, Inc. recently joined IADDIC Shelters, LLC of Dallas, Texas, USA, D&D FRB (Fast Response Buildings), operating out of Istanbul, Turkey; and Quick Quarters, Inc. (QQI) in Bellevue, Washington, USA ; in the formation of "The Shelter Alliance".

"We have united to respond and satisfy the specific needs as they are dictated by each client as well as each project", says Badcock of the alliance.

The Overseas Lease Group, Inc. is a vehicle, equipment, shelter, and complete Man/Disaster/Refugee Camp leasing business that specializes in providing customized lease solutions to multi-national companies, government agencies, and NGOs operating in developing countries. Additionally, small or large vehicle fleets, (non-armored or armored) trucks, buses, construction equipment, are available to be included with a complete camp project lease or within a separate leasing structure. OLG is a member of The International Peace Operations Association (IPOA). For more information, please visit
